

Sunday 14 April 2024 - 1:00-5:00 PM
Vinitaly - Salieri Hall

New European Regulation on Geographical Indications of Wines, Spirit Drinks and Foodstuffs

Registration of participants (1:00 -1:15 pm)

Chair and introduction: Avv. Diego Saluzzo (President UGIVI – Turin)

Moderate: Avv. Francesca Besana (Verona)

New regulation on geographical indications for wines, spirits and foodstuffs: an overview
Avv. Stefano Dindo (Past President UGIVI - Verona)

International protection of designations - Avv. Alessandro Grangiotti (UGIVI - Rome)

Sustainability in the new PDOs and PGIs: sustainability actions, practices and reports
Avv. Valentina Pontetti (UGIVI - Rome) - Avv. Filippo Moreschi (VP UGIVI - Mantua)

Geographical indications, Italian sounding and sustainability. Role of the consumers
Prof. Avv. Oreste Calliano (UGIVI - Turin University – Accademia di Agricoltura di Torino)

Q&A session

-----oooOooo-----

Moderate: Avv. Angela Quatela (UGIVI Secretary - Bari)

The protection of geographical indications for undue exploitation of reputation and evocation in light of the reform - Avv. Paolo Veronesi (UGIVI - Verona)

Enhanced online protection and ex-officio protection of domain names through geo-blocking

Avv. Stefano Vergano (UGIVI - Turin)

Procedural aspects for the recognition of new PDOs

Avv. Ermenegildo Mario Appiano (UGIVI - Turin)

Expected impact of the new regulation on producers and consortia

Dr. Stefano Sequino (UGIVI - Director Consorzio DOC Delle Venezie)

-----oooOooo-----

Participation in the conference is open to all, as well as free of charge.

Verona Bar Association awarded no. 3 training credits for the entire participation in the conference, subject to registration on the Riconosco platform.

Participants associated with Assoenologi will be awarded no. 3 training credits for the entire participation in the conference.

